REQUIRED PROCEDURES REGARDING ASSISTANCE TO OR FROM OTHER GOVERNMENT COMPONENTS

1-3 No Change.

4. Requests for assistance that have no precedent, have not previously been determined to be legal and proper, or have serious policy or resource implications may be approved by Deputy Directors and Heads of Independent Offices with the concurrence of the Office of General Counsel and, on serious policy or resource matters, the Office of the Comptroller. If there is disagreement as to whether the assistance should be provided, the appropriate Deputy Director or Head of Independent Office shall forward the matter to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence for resolution.
